

Acompany operating under many names MyVine, Hpervine, etc. is ytaking money to supply internet access and support and is not fulfilling their advertised promises. They will not respond to help requests via on-line or telephone. They will cancel your account, but not refund any money that is paid on a one year prepay account. This all sounds very illegal.